

The 20th Asian Conference on Occupational Health (ACOH) “Moving Occupational Health Towards Globalization”

4 members were sponsored by the OEHS to attend the 20th ACOH held at Bangkok from 9 – 11 march 2011. There were Prof. David Koh, Dr. Kenneth Choy, Dr. Lee Lay Tin and Dr. Lim John Wah.

Dr. Lee Lay Tin was one of the International Advisory Committee members for the conference.

Prof. David Koh delivered a keynote lecture on “Nanotechnology and Health” and presented a poster on “Asbestos-related diseases in Singapore from 1968 to 2007”.

Dr. Kenneth Choy presented an oral paper on “Heat stroke among construction workers in Singapore”.

Dr. Lim John Wah presented a poster on “Preventive technologies to eliminate asbestos-related diseases in Singapore”

Prof. David Koh delivered his keynote lecture

Dr. Kenneth Choy presented his oral paper

